“Brother, it is well; you are welcome. Bring with you your friends and may they ever prove themselves worthy of our confidence.”

Drawn by MILTON CANIFF, Alpha Gamma (Ohio State) 1930, famed creator of “Terry and the Pirates.”

The Chapter Eternal

*Corporal Richard F. Hafer
Cincinnati 1947*

On the door of the Chapter Eternal,
Comes a knock so familiar to You;
A hero requests his admittance
To sit in the Chapter with You.

Not the first to come, O, Great Consul,
With a White Cross of crimsoning hue;
He's not stained it nor darkened its lustre
He has added a color that's new.

He's a Brother who died in the battle
For the freedom we all love so true;
And his cry was "In Hoc Signo Vincens"
For he fought for the White Cross, too.

Let this man enter Your chapter
And sit with the Brothers of old;
Don't bother with a place of prominence
Put him close to the blue and the gold.

For the hero loved the White Cross
Loved it as all of us do;
And I know You'll grant him admittance
In the Chapter Eternal with You.

Dedicated to the Sigma Chi who have lost their lives in defense of their homelands, but especially to Pvt. George W. Haller, Zeta Psi '45, killed in action at Cassino, Italy, on May 21, 1944.
